

giada

October 24, 2013

Boston

GRETTA MONAHAN

Style expert, working mom, and shopping pal

SPORTELO

The newest spot from local legend Barbara Lynch. We Bostonians have been aching for a place like this: classic diner with an Italian twist, along with a bakery, a gourmet food section, organic coffee, and boxed lunches to go.

348 Congress Street

617-737-1234

sportelloboston.com

PURITAN & COMPANY

This fun and casual place serves a modern take on New England cooking and focuses on the freshest local ingredients. Great wine list, too!

1166 Cambridge Street, Inman Square, Cambridge

617-615-6195

www.puritancambridge.com

She also loves Joanne Chang's Flour Bakery in Boston, and Michael Schlow's Alta Strada in Wellesley.

Cleveland

MICHAEL SYMON

Mediterranean chef, TV personality, absolute doll

SOKOLOWSKIS

This is one of Cleveland's oldest and most storied restaurants, serving Polish food, cafeteria style.

1201 University Road

216-771-9236

www.sokolowskis.com

GREAT LAKES BREWERY COMPANY

The best brewery of its kind in the country, hands down.

2516 Market Avenue

216-771-4404

www.greatlakesbrewing.com

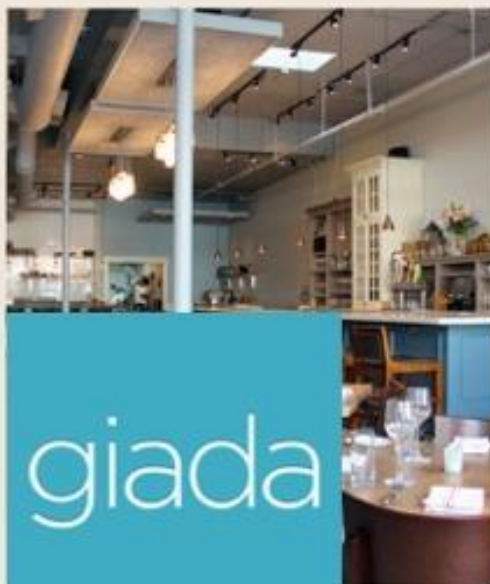

THE GREENHOUSE TAVERN

My go-to restaurant for great food. Jonathon Sawyer serves an amazing roasted pig head and fantastic fries, all made with Ohio ingredients.

2038 East 4th Street

216-443-0511

thegreenhousetavern.com

THE GREENHOUSE TAVERN, CLEVELAND

